

This 'inspirational thought' had been sent to our friends at The Light Tower in the Netherlands (<http://www.breatheinlife.nl/English/Edetails.htm>), and they have shared it with us.

A dream

Once I had a dream and I saw myself walking on the beach at low tide. I wasn't alone because God walked by my side. Together we walked through life and behind us we left a trail of footprints in the sand. There were 2 pairs of footprints, as God walked next to me, hand in hand.

I stopped and looked behind me, I saw the pathway of my life in times of happiness and joy, of deep pain and hope.

But if I looked carefully at the trail I saw that, where life became difficult and really heavy for me, there were only 1 pair of footprints.

I asked God why there was only 1 pair of trails when I had such difficult times?

God looked at me, with all His love, and answered my question:

My dear child, when it became difficult for you I carried you.